

Intercessions: It would be so lovely to recruit some new intercessors for all the Churches in the benefice, if you feel this might be something you would like to do we are having a meeting at David Robinson's house on Friday 6th September 4pm. We will use the time to give guidance in how to write and deliver intercessions. There are plenty of resource that are helpful and we will go through these. Honestly it's not as frightening as it may seem, it is indeed a privilege to intercede for others. If you are interested please have a word with Rev Trish.

COLLECT

O God, you declare your almighty power most chiefly in showing mercy and pity: mercifully grant to us such a measure of your grace, that we, running the way of your commandments, may receive your gracious promises, and be made partakers of your heavenly treasure; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

TODAY'S READINGS

Jeremiah 2:4-13

Hear the word of the LORD, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel. Thus says the LORD: What wrong did your ancestors find in me that they went far from me, and went after worthless things, and became worthless themselves?

They did not say, 'Where is the LORD who brought us up from the land of Egypt, who led us in the wilderness, in a land of deserts and pits, in a land of drought and deep darkness, in a land that no one passes through, where no one lives?'

I brought you into a plentiful land to eat its fruits and its good things. But when you entered you defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination. The priests did not say, 'Where is the LORD?' Those who handle the law did not know me; the rulers transgressed against me; the prophets prophesied by Baal, and went after things that do not profit. Therefore once more I accuse you, says the LORD, and I accuse your children's children. Cross to the coasts of Cyprus and look, send to Kedar and examine with care; see if there has ever been such a thing. Has a nation changed its gods, even though they are no gods? But my people have changed their glory for something that does not profit. Be appalled, O heavens, at this, be shocked, be utterly desolate, says the LORD, for my people have committed two evils:

they have forsaken me,
the fountain of living water,
and dug out cisterns for themselves,
cracked cisterns
that can hold no water.

Hebrews 13:1-8,15-16;

Let mutual love continue. Do not neglect to show hospitality to strangers, for by doing that some have entertained angels without knowing it. Remember those who are in prison, as though you were in prison with them; those who are being tortured, as though you yourselves were being tortured. Let marriage be held in honour by all, and let the marriage bed be kept undefiled; for God will judge fornicators and adulterers. Keep your lives free from the love of money, and be content with what you have; for he has said, 'I will never leave you or forsake you.' So we can say with confidence, 'The Lord is my helper; I will not be afraid.

What can anyone do to me?'

Remember your leaders, those who spoke the word of God to you; consider the outcome of their way of life, and imitate their faith. Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever. Through him, then, let us continually offer a sacrifice of praise to God, that is, the fruit of lips that confess his name. Do not neglect to do good and to share what you have, for such sacrifices are pleasing to God.

Luke 14:1, 7-14

On one occasion when Jesus was going to the house of a leader of the Pharisees to eat a meal on the sabbath, they were watching him closely.

When he noticed how the guests chose the places of honour, he told them a parable. 'When you are invited by someone to a wedding banquet, do not sit down at the place of honour, in case someone more distinguished than you has been invited by your host; and the host who invited both of you may come and say to you, "Give this person your place", and then in disgrace you would start to take the lowest place. But when you are invited, go and sit down at the lowest place, so that when your host comes, he may say to you, "Friend, move up higher"; then you will be honoured in the presence of all who sit at the table with you. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted.'

He said also to the one who had invited him, 'When you give a luncheon or a dinner, do not invite your friends or your brothers or your relatives or rich neighbours, in case they may invite you in return, and you would be repaid. But when you give a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, and the blind. And you will be blessed, because they cannot repay you, for you will be repaid at the resurrection of the righteous.'

Post Communion Prayer

Lord of all mercy,
we your faithful people have celebrated that one true sacrifice
which takes away our sins and brings pardon and peace:
by our communion
keep us firm on the foundation of the gospel
and preserve us from all sin;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Thoughts for the Week

A day without laughter is a day wasted." (Charlie Chaplin)

Notices

THE MELISMA GROUP will meet on Thurs. 5th September at 3pm at Black Lake House, Milland. This is an opportunity to welcome a God-centred interruption in a very busy life.

Lunch Club: You will be aware that we are aiming to resurrect the Lunch Club as from October and we should be grateful if everyone could advertise this to their friends and neighbours. Further details are in the July/August magazine - e.g. first Friday in the month at a cost of £4 (£5 with wine) - and, nearer the date, we will just need to have an idea of numbers. Thanks.

Linch

A little time in the future but to be thought about now:

On Wednesday 9th October, we have arranged a meeting in the church at 2.00 p.m. where a former Royal Bodyguard will speak to us of his experiences in that particular job. Apparently, he worked with and for Princess Diana so no doubt has some tales to tell. This is a fund-raising event and needs your support. Tickets will be £10 per person and tea and cakes will be served (what an incentive). For the speaker's sake - as well, obviously, as the church's funds - we need a full church so we are relying on you!

DAVID STOBART : is well settled into his new "home" and would love to see visitors. Please ring Gill 01962 808926 to make arrangements.

Forthcoming notes for service changes:

September 8 There will be no service at Milland

September 15 There will be a joint communion service at Stedham for the congregations of Linch and Stedham. There will be no service at Linch on this day.
